If you are a non-resident, we will also deduct withholding tax from the interest that you earn on your Bank of Queensland Bonds. It is your responsibility to notify us of your non-resident status on your Application Form. You may also be required to pay tax in your country of residence.

Withholding tax rates are set out in Bank of Queensland Bonds – Schedule of Fees and Charges.

The acquisition, sale or maturity of a Bank of Queensland Bond may have income tax or capital gains tax consequences.

We recommend that you obtain your own advice regarding all tax matters, as the tax effect of any product or transaction depends upon your individual circumstances.

(b) New customers

We may need to identify you before we can issue Bank of Queensland Bonds to you (although we generally do not need to do this if you are already our customer). We might also need to identify any other person who will be an Authorised Signatory.

We will identify you using one of our 2 alternative methods below, or by using any other specific identification procedures we establish from time to time.

(i) 100 Point Check

You and any other Authorised Signatories may need to produce identification totalling 100 points. We can request further identification if we think it is necessary.

Acceptable forms of identification include:

| Identification  | Points |
|---|--------|
| Passport, full birth certificate (or extract), citizenship certificate  | 70     |
| Current Australian driver's licence   | 40     |
| Pensioner Concession Card or Health Care Card issued by a Federal, State or Territory Government in Australia   | 40     |
| University or TAFE student identification card (photo ID issued by an Australian Tertiary Education Institution)  | 40     |

(ii) Acceptable reference

Alternatively, you or any Authorised Signatory can provide an acceptable reference.

Acceptable referees include doctors, teachers, solicitors, bank managers, Justices of the Peace and Members of Parliament.

Your referee must have known you personally for at least 12 months, and have sighted your passport, birth certificate or citizenship certificate. They must provide their reference on the approved form. You can get this form from us, or from the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC).

If we cannot be sure of your or any Authorised Signatory's identity, we can decline your application to purchase Bank of Queensland Bonds or block all transactions in relation to your Bank of Queensland Bonds until you and any Authorised Signatories are identified.

(c) Tax File Numbers (TFN)

It is not compulsory for you to give us your TFN. However, if you choose not to, we must deduct withholding tax at the highest marginal tax rate, plus the Medicare Levy, from any interest that you earn.

If you are not an Australian resident, we are also required to deduct withholding tax from the interest that you earn on your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

You can give us your TFN when you first purchase your Bank of Queensland Bonds, or at any other time.

If the Bank of Queensland Bonds are held in joint names, each holder can provide their TFN. If you hold the Bank of Queensland Bonds in trust for another person, such as your child, you should quote your own TFN. However, if you are trustee of a formal trust, the TFN quoted should be that of the trust not your personal TFN.

If you have not provided your TFN (or ABN) and you are an exempt person, withholding tax will not be deducted from your interest. However, you must tell us which type of exemption applies to you.

We are required to report details of interest income earned, withholding tax deducted and TFNs quoted to the Australian Taxation Office. The Privacy Act imposes strict obligations on what we can do with your TFN. We will keep your TFN confidential.

You must pass on the terms and conditions of this PDS to each of those persons.

You and the other joint holders must all sign the Application Form that will say how your Bank of Queensland Bonds are to be operated. If you want to change the way your Bank of Queensland Bonds are operated, you must complete a new Application Form.

Before you apply for Bank of Queensland Bonds jointly with other people, you should understand that if one of you dies, we can treat your Bank of Queensland Bonds as belonging to the remaining joint holders.

2.4 Allowing others to transact on your behalf

(a) Authorised Signatories

If you want another person or persons, such as your stockbroker or financial advisor, to transact in relation to your Bank of Queensland Bonds, you must complete the relevant section of the Application Form.

Notwithstanding any provision in this PDS, these people will be nominated as your Authorised Signatories and will be authorised to provide us with written instructions on your behalf.

If you authorise another person to transact in relation to your Bank of Queensland Bonds, that person can do most things that you can do yourself.

For example, they can:

- redeem your Bank of Queensland Bonds upon maturity;
- sell your Bank of Queensland Bonds prior to maturity;
- purchase additional Bank of Queensland Bonds;
- alter your details including, but not limited to, your Payment Details;
- order additional Acknowledgments of Investments or Confirmations;
- reinvest funds upon the maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds; or
- obtain any information from us about your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

However, if you are not allowed to perform a particular transaction under this PDS, the Authorised Signatory will also be prohibited from performing the same transaction. We will only accept instructions from an Authorised Signatory in writing.

(b) Risks of appointing Authorised Signatories

You appoint an Authorised Signatory at your own risk. You are responsible for any transactions that person makes in relation to your Bank of Queensland Bonds, even if you do not know about them.

(c) Cancelling an Authorised Signatory's authority

You can cancel an Authorised Signatory's authority at any time by telling us in writing. However, you will be responsible for any transactions made prior to the authority being cancelled and/or you notifying us of the cancellation.

We also reserve the right to cancel an Authorised Signatory's authority to operate Bank of Queensland Bonds.

2.5 Payments to you

All customers who apply for Bank of Queensland Bonds must complete the Payment Details section of the Application Form. This section of the Application Form will provide details of the Bank Account to which we will transfer all interest as well as all funds payable to you on maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

This Bank Account may be with us or another financial institution in Australia, but must be in the same name as that in which your Bank of Queensland Bonds are held. You may only nominate one Bank Account on your Application Form. If you would like to change this Bank Account at any time, you will need to provide us with written instructions setting out details of your bank account and authorising us to pay all funds to which you are entitled to that new account. This bank account will also need to be in the same name as your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

If your Bank Account is not held with us, we will require a copy of a bank statement or pre-printed deposit slip from the financial institution at which it is held as proof that the Bank Account is in the same name as your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

Transfers of funds to your Bank Account upon redemption of your Bank of Queensland Bonds and payments of interest may only be made by:

- Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) to a Bank Account held with another financial institution; or
- Directly credited to your Bank of Queensland Bank Account.

As the common method of payment for Bank of Queensland Bonds is by personal cheque, there may be cases when dishonours occur. That is, the customer does not have sufficient funds in their account to cover the payment required.

In these cases the Bond Registry will redeem the Bank of Queensland Bond as at the date on which your purchase of that Bank of Queensland Bond is entered into its system. Interest will not be paid for the amount dishonoured.

Subsequently, the Bond Registry will prepare an advice to you detailing the dishonour of the cheque and the redemption of the Bank of Queensland Bond. We may also contact you by telephone to advise you of the dishonour.

If you still wish to proceed with your purchase of Bank of Queensland Bonds, a new Application Form together with the relevant payment must be re-submitted to the Bond Registry.

(d) Selling your Bank of Queensland Bonds before maturity

You may not withdraw funds from your investment in Bank of Queensland Bonds until maturity. However, if you need funds prior to maturity you may sell your Bank of Queensland Bonds in the secondary market for the current market price at the time of sale.

The current market price will generally be the price which another person is prepared to pay for your Bank of Queensland Bonds in the secondary market. This price will depend on a number of factors including the fixed interest rate payable on the specific bond, the current market interest rates at the time of the sale and the time to maturity. This price may be higher or lower than the price you paid for your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

If you would like to sell your Bank of Queensland Bonds prior to maturity you should contact either your stockbroker or financial advisor and they will assist you in selling your Bank of Queensland Bonds. We can not assist you in selling your Bank of Queensland Bonds prior to maturity.

We recommend that you arrange for your stockbroker or financial advisor to check the Bond Register for encumbrances against your Bank of Queensland Bonds before any sale.

The Bond Register is closed to transfers for the period starting seven calendar days before the next immediate payment date, up to and including that date. This is known as the 'Closed Book Period'. Any interest paid during the Closed Book Period will be paid to you according to the instructions held for that Bank of Queensland Bond, not to a transferee.

(e) Buying new Bank of Queensland Bonds in the secondary market

In order to buy Bank of Queensland Bonds in the secondary market, you must provide us with a completed Application Form signed by you and a Transfer Form signed by both you and the seller. We will not register the transfer of Bank of Queensland Bonds to you until you have provided us with these documents.

2.7 Interest rates

(a) Interest that we pay to you

You will earn a fixed rate of interest on your Bank of Queensland Bonds. Details of interest rates that apply to your Bank of Queensland Bonds are:

- printed on your Confirmations; or
- available by contacting our Bond Registry on 1800 813 902.

Interest rates on Bank of Queensland Bonds are based on a combination of the following factors and are therefore subject to constant fluctuation:

- wholesale interest rates;
- the term of the relevant bond;
- the face value of the bond;
- the Bank's credit rating;
- the timing of the transaction; and
- market conditions.

It is therefore impractical for the Bank to disclose the specific interest rates that will apply to investments in Bank of Queensland Bonds in this PDS. You may obtain details of current interest rates by telephoning or e-mailing our Bond Registry, by writing to us, by visiting one of our Branches or by visiting our website (refer to section 1.3).

Interest rate changes will not apply to your existing Bank of Queensland Bonds but will only apply to new Bank of Queensland Bonds that you decide to purchase.

Additionally, the interest rates that will be available for reinvestments of less than $250,000 upon maturity of your existing Bank of Queensland Bonds will be quoted on your Maturity Advice. Interest rates on investments above $250,000 are quoted on a case by case basis. To obtain a quote, please contact our Bond Registry (refer to section 1.3).

(b) How the interest you earn is calculated and paid

Interest is calculated daily on the face value of your Bank of Queensland Bonds at the applicable fixed interest rate.

We calculate this interest from and including the day on which you purchase your Bank of Queensland Bonds, excluding the day of maturity.

We pay interest on your Bank of Queensland Bonds either quarterly or annually, at your option. Interest will be paid on the same day of the month as that on which the Bank of Queensland Bonds were purchased.

If the day on which that interest is to be paid is not a Bank Business Day, we will pay the interest on the next Bank Business Day.

Where the term of your Bank of Queensland Bonds is 18 months and you have elected to be paid interest annually, you will be paid interest on the first anniversary of the date of purchase of your Bank of Queensland Bonds and the remaining interest will be paid to you upon maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds.

Our Bond Registry will provide you with a written advice confirming details of interest payments credited to your Bank Account either quarterly or yearly depending on the frequency with which you have elected to be paid interest.

Interest payments in relation to Bank of Queensland Bonds are made in the following ways:

| Payment Method            | Choice of Options  |
|---------------------------|--|
| At maturity               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ EFT directly to your Bank Account at any financial institution in Australia (if your Bank Account is not with the Bank of Queensland);</li> <li>▪ Directly credited to your Bank of Queensland Bank Account; or</li> <li>▪ Reinvested in new Bank of Queensland Bonds.</li> </ul> |
| Interim interest payments | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ EFT directly to your Bank Account at any financial institution in Australia (if your Bank Account is not with the Bank of Queensland); or</li> <li>▪ Directly credited to your Bank of Queensland Bank Account.</li> </ul>  |

(c) What happens when we increase our interest rates?

Changes in interest rates apply from the actual effective date of the change. Increased interest rates will only apply in relation to Bank of Queensland Bonds that are purchased on or after the effective date of the change.

Only those Bank of Queensland Bonds that mature on or after the effective date of the change will receive the higher interest rates. This is regardless of the rates quoted on your Maturity Advice.

(d) What happens when we decrease our interest rates?

Lower interest rates will apply to all new applications for Bank of Queensland Bonds which are received after the effective date of the change. We may accept applications for Bank of Queensland Bonds at the old interest rate which we receive after the effective date of the change in certain limited circumstances. For example, in circumstances where we can confirm that the Application Form was genuinely in transit on the effective date of the change, we may accept applications that are received by us up to two days after the effective date of the change. We may confirm this by looking at the date of the cheque attached to the Application Form and the postmark. Any applications where the cheque is dated the same day as the effective date of the change, will not be accepted on the previous rates.

Where you elect on your Maturity Advice to reinvest the proceeds of redemption of your Bank of Queensland Bonds in new Bank of Queensland Bonds, we will honour the rates quoted on the Maturity Advice in relation to the redemption proceeds provided we receive your Maturity Advice on or prior to the maturity date.

Where we receive your Maturity Advice after the date of maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds, we are not obliged to honour the previous rates quoted on the Maturity Advice. In this instance we will contact you to confirm whether you still wish to proceed with the reinvestment on the new rates.

In no circumstances are we obliged to accept any additional funds other than those which are payable to you upon redemption of your Bank of Queensland Bonds as set out in your Maturity Advice, for investment in Bank of Queensland Bonds at the old interest rates.

2.8 Maturing Bank of Queensland Bonds

(a) Redeeming or reinvesting in Bank of Queensland Bonds

Our Bond Registry will provide you with a Maturity Advice prior to the maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds reminding you of the date of maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds. The Maturity Advice will give you the option to do any of the following:

- redeem your Bank of Queensland Bonds and elect for the redemption proceeds to be paid to you in full (ie their face value);
- reinvest all of the proceeds of redemption of your Bank of Queensland Bonds in new Bank of Queensland Bonds;
- redeem your Bank of Queensland Bonds and reinvest part of the proceeds of redemption in new Bank of Queensland Bonds (keeping in mind that a minimum deposit of $5,000 applies);
- add interest payable to you upon maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds to part or all of the proceeds of redemption and reinvest those funds in new Bank of Queensland Bonds; and/or
- add an additional amount of your money to the proceeds of redemption of your Bank of Queensland Bonds and reinvest the total in new Bank of Queensland Bonds.

Once the Maturity Advice is completed and returned to our Bond Registry together with any additional amount that you would like to invest, your request can be processed.

If your Bank of Queensland Bonds mature on a day other than a Bank Business Day, you can redeem them on the next Bank Business Day. In that case, we will pay you interest for any extra days at the same fixed rate that applied to your Bank of Queensland Bonds during the term of your investment.

(b) Payment of redemption proceeds to your Bank Account

You may elect that some or all of the proceeds of redemption of your Bank of Queensland Bonds or interest payable to you upon maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds be paid into your Bank Account.

Where your Bank Account is held with us, we will deposit these proceeds directly into your Bank Account. Where your Bank Account is held with another financial institution, the redemption proceeds will be transferred into your Bank Account via EFT.

(c) Reinvestment of redemption proceeds

On the day your Bank of Queensland Bonds mature, you can purchase additional Bank of Queensland Bonds using the redemption proceeds from your existing Bank of Queensland Bonds (ie the face value of the Bank of Queensland Bonds).

To do this you will need to elect this option on your Maturity Advice and provide details of the amount of redemption proceeds which you would like to reinvest in new Bank of Queensland Bonds.

The Maturity Advice will also quote the reinvestment interest rates that will apply on the maturity date in relation to amounts of $250,000 or less. If you wish to reinvest an amount in excess of $250,000, your application for reinvestment must be approved by the Bond Registry. Interest rates on investments above $250,000 are quoted on a case by case basis. To obtain a quote, please contact our Bond Registry (refer to section 1.3).

(d) Failure to provide a Maturity Advice

If we have not received a signed Maturity Advice by the day your investment matures, we will not automatically redeem your Bank of Queensland Bond. However, we will pay interest on the face value of your Bank of Queensland Bond from (and including) that day at our 'at-call' deposit rate. We can change that rate at any time without notice to you. Interest payable to you from the date of maturity will not be paid to you until you return your signed Maturity Advice to us. The treatment of unclaimed money is dealt with in section 3.7.

2.9 Stockbrokers or financial advisors

Where applications for Bank of Queensland Bonds are referred to us by stockbrokers or financial advisors, you agree that unless you tell us otherwise we may send a notification of the impending maturity of your Bank of Queensland Bonds to your stockbroker or financial advisor.

by you or anyone authorised by you to, or someone purporting to be you or someone authorised by you to operate your Bank of Queensland Bonds or because of any Authorised Signatory acting outside the scope of their authority, you will save the Bank harmless and pay us the amount of that loss, claim, demand or damage on demand, including all legal costs on a full indemnity basis, even after your Bank of Queensland Bonds have matured or been sold.

In addition, you or an Authorised Signatory will, if requested, provide to the Bank an additional indemnity in a form acceptable to the Bank, before the Bank acts on your instructions.

3.4 Customer integrity

We believe that you will deal with us honestly and in good faith. If we suffer loss because you do not deal with us honestly or in good faith, we will take steps to recover that loss. We must do that in the interests of our other customers and shareholders. In some cases and where permitted by law, we will take those steps without notice.

3.5 Warning

By providing it, we do not intend to provide financial advice or any financial recommendations. We recommend that you seek independent advice before making a decision on how best to manage your financial risks.

3.6 Other information we require from you

You and any Authorised Signatories must provide such further identification and other details as we or the law may require from time to time. This further information may be used to establish your or an Authorised Signatory's identity before we issue Bank of Queensland Bonds to you and/or act on any instructions. This further information may include (but will not be limited to) personal information or any secret code relevant to the Bank of Queensland Bonds. You agree that we are not obliged to obtain such identification and other details prior to acting on any or all instructions.

Where you have directed a third party to make a payment to us, we may require you and/or the third party to provide sufficient information and identification documentation in relation to the third party to meet our security, identification and other lawful requirements.

3.7 Unclaimed Money

If we have not received any instructions from you in relation to your Bank of Queensland Bonds, or your Bank of Queensland Bonds have not otherwise been operated for a period of 7 years or more then the principal and interest from your Bank of Queensland Bond may be deemed to be "unclaimed money" in accordance with Section 69 of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth). In this situation, Bank of Queensland Bonds must be redeemed and the proceeds of redemption transferred to the Commonwealth Government.

4.8 The relationship between banker and customer

The relationship between a bank and its customer (including the relationship between you and us) has been defined by a number of court cases. Set out below are some of the terms which are implied into any contract between a bank and its customer.

You should be aware that the specific terms and conditions applying to our banking services (as defined in the COBP) may alter these implied terms, and may add new or additional terms. The terms that apply to your Bank of Queensland Bonds are set out in this PDS.

(a) Terms implied into the contract between banker and customer

Following are some of the general terms that are implied into the contract between a bank and its customer in addition to those in your contract for your Bank of Queensland Bonds, unless this PDS states otherwise:

(i) Our duties:

- Opening accounts – we owe a duty of care to you in opening accounts to make proper enquiries to ensure accurate identification of you and verification of account details.
- Duty of secrecy – we have a duty of secrecy to you with respect to the transactions which go through your account. However, this duty is not absolute and is subject to certain qualifications. For example, we may disclose information where you have expressly or impliedly consented or as required by law.

- Financial advice – we must exercise care and skill when providing financial advice to you as part of, or incident to, the banking services we offer.
- Safe custody – if we accept your items for safe custody, we owe a duty to return them to you at the end of the safe custody period.
- Bankers' references – we have a duty to exercise reasonable care and skill in providing a reference on your credit worthiness to another bank.
- Conform with your mandate – due to the debtor/creditor nature of your relationship with us, we are bound to conform strictly with your mandate which may be issued in the form of a cheque or some other written order including a passbook or withdrawal slip. Unless otherwise agreed, we are specifically obliged to repay an amount on demand at the branch where the account is located.
- Question a valid mandate – while we are subject to the primary duty to repay on demand an amount due to you, this is conditional upon our duty to question a request for payment. We will do this in circumstances which raise a serious or real possibility that fraud is being committed on the account.
- Issuing correct statements – we are under a duty to keep accurate accounts. This duty is subject to our entitlement to reverse errors which you know or should have known existed (although you are not under an express duty to read statements and discover and report forgeries).
- Appropriating payments into accounts – we can allocate a payment at our discretion unless you have clearly asked the payment to be used for a special purpose or a particular account.

(ii) Your duties:

- Clear instructions – your instructions on payment of funds must be clear.
- Minimising the risk of forgery – you must exercise reasonable care in making out cheques so that we are not misled and forgery is not facilitated. You must notify us of any forgeries (including unauthorised transactions on your account) known to you. You generally do not have a duty to inspect statements to discover forgeries, although you are generally obliged to read your account statements and notify us of any entries which you believe are unauthorised.

- Care of methods of accessing your account – if you are given a cheque book, you must take care of it. If you access your account electronically, you are likely to have specific obligations relating to the security of any equipment (such as cards) or security codes (such as a PIN).
